The product(s) listed above may now be CE marked provided that:

- 1) A user information notice as included in the technical file is supplied with the products.
- 2) A declaration on EC conformity according to EC Directive 89/686 Annex IV is completed and signed by you and retained with the technical file.
- 3) The products are marked in accordance with the technical file.
- 4) The User Instructions are translated into the languages of all the countries of destination within the European Community.
- 5) The design remains unchanged and, for complex products only, the products are supported by documentation to show compliance with article 11 of Directive 89/686/EEC which is less than 12 months old.

Please note an EC Type Examination certificate is based on testing of a model of the product and in itself does not represent any assessment of bulk production
